

Clarus Therapeutic, Inc.'s Social Media Community Guidelines

Welcome to our corporate LinkedIn page and thanks for your interest in engaging with Clarus Therapeutics, Inc.! Our goal is to provide educational and informative content while fostering an open and respectful dialogue.

When engaging with us on social media, please keep in mind that the healthcare industry is a highly regulated environment and you are agreeing to our Community Guidelines in addition to the LinkedIn User Agreement and Privacy Policy. You are responsible for content that you post or comment on our social channel. You should only post content that is original and that you have the right to post. Using any information provided by other users is at your own risk. We reserve the right to monitor, review, edit, remove and delete user content, as well as disable, refuse, restrict or terminate access to our social media channel, based on the below criteria.

We may remove any post that is not consistent with the community guidelines or legal terms and conditions of the social media platform, including content that:

1. Mentions our products by name or products from other companies
2. Mentions a side effect of a product. Further, we may contact you for additional information. If you wish to contact the FDA directly about a side effect, you can visit www.fda.gov/medwatch or call 1-800-FDA-1088.
3. Mentions an off-label usage of a product
4. Provides medical advice
5. Infringes on the copyright, trademark, patent or other intellectual property of any third party
6. Violates a third party's right to privacy or publicity
7. Is clearly off-topic, inappropriate, vulgar, degrading, abusive, violent or constitutes spam
8. Violates any applicable local, state, national or international law, advocates illegal activity or links to such content
9. Violates the social media platform's rules

Please note that there may be other reasons, not listed above, that we may need to remove your comment, at our discretion. Clarus Therapeutics is not obligated to respond to comments, and we reserve the right to block users or remove any content, in our sole discretion, or change these guidelines at any time with or without notice.

Clarus Therapeutics will link to or follow accounts from related groups and communities. Accounts that Clarus Therapeutics follows, or are followed by, are not an indication of endorsement of these accounts, their opinions or their content.

Healthcare Discussions

If you have any questions about your own or others' healthcare, you should consult a physician, pharmacist, or other healthcare professionals. If you'd like to communicate with someone directly about a therapeutic area or product of Clarus Therapeutics, please call (847) 562-4300 or email contact@clarustherapeutics.com. Please note, Clarus Therapeutics does not give medical advice, nor does it provide medical or diagnostic services.

Please keep in mind that social media is a public forum and that anyone may see or save your comments. We recommend not sharing any personal information concerning your personal health within comments or posts on our pages.

Storing and Using Private Information

Clarus Therapeutics will not disclose or share personal identifying information unless we have obtained proper consent. We do, however, reserve the right to collect your social media handles/IDs, email addresses or any other public personal information if you report an adverse event or product issue to us. We are obligated to record identifying information about you (such as your name, location or health-related information). This information is required by law to be submitted to regulatory authorities, and we are required to store this information for auditing purposes. Click here for more information on Clarus Therapeutics' Privacy Policy.

Thank you for reading and being a part of our social media community!
